

TO: god

Build me a pyramid that I might lie under when I die.

Give me a woman who, in my absence, will cry.

Find me a place where the sun always shines,
but rain falls as well.

If I live a hundred years and die a death that had no fear -

A happy man you'll find me there.

